

NEW PRESIDENT FOR MLASA

Written by Tracy

Wednesday, 17 September 2014 09:49

Patrick Holloway from South African law firm, Webber Wentzel, has been elected as President of the Maritime Law Association of South Africa (MLASA).

The announcement was made at the MLASA's 30th annual conference and general meeting which was recently held in Arniston near Cape Town.

Shipping plays a key role in the transport sector and this achievement highlights Webber Wentzel's leading industry position.