

TNPA CHIEF EXECUTIVE TO RETIRE

Written by Tracy

Wednesday, 25 March 2015 14:35

South Africa - Transnet National Port Authority has announced that its Chief Executive, Tau Morwe, is taking early retirement at the end of April 2015.

Morwe has been employed at Transnet since 1997 and during his tenure has served as Chief Executive of three divisions: National Port Authority, Freight Rail and Port Terminals. He has also led the Port Management Association of Eastern and Southern Africa (PMAESA) from 2011 to 2014.

His successor has not been announced.