

SOUTH AFRICAN FISHING PERSONALITY DIES

Written by Tracy

Wednesday, 17 September 2014 09:47

Cape Town - Roy Bross, Executive Secretary of the South African Deep Sea Trawl Industry Association for 31 years, has passed away in Cape Town.

Roy, 74, worked right up until he took ill in July. His passion and knowledge of the South African commercial fishing industry will be sorely missed.

Roy is survived by his wife, Sue, and his daughters, Sarah and Helen, who live in Canada and the UK, respectively